UAMN Virtual Family DaySun

Make Snow Goggles

Discover traditional technology to protect eyes from sunlight!

/ y μ ‰] š Ų azqu Œ (Athabascan) peoples traditionally use snow goggles to protect the eyes from the glare of sunlight reflecting off snow. Narrow slits reduce incoming light, but provide a wide range of vision.

Materials Needed:

UAMN Virtual Family DaySun

Traditional Technology: Snow Goggles

For thousands of years, people around the world have come up with ways to protect their eyes from bright sunlight apiat, Yup'ik, and Dené (Athabascan) peoples traditionally useow gogglesto protect the eyes.

As the amount of sunshine increases in spring, it is important to protect agains now blindnes painful burning of the retinas caused by strong ultTd [(As th)-3.00ce /Pa

UAMN Virtual Family DaySun

Snow Goggles Printable

Instructions: Cut out the template. Hold up to your face to check the eye slits are in the right place, and cut to the correct size. Decorate your snow goggles. Make a small hole on each side where indicated, and tie a piece of yarn through each hole. Tie the yarn around your head to wear your snow goggles!

