

Friday, November 1, 2013

by Scott McCrea

At the end of Theatre UAF's production of "Nickel and Dimed" a character named Carlie, played by Melissa Buchta, tells the audience about a new job she has as an in-home caregiver for an elderly woman. It's not a bad gig, she explains,