

□

SU

1

1

1

0

4

8

4

5

S

C

s u

I

t

6

7

(/

1

8.

P

e

e

4

C

10. COMPLETE
and/or sta

Example of a co

FISH F487 W, C
3 Credits Theory an freshwater ENGL F2

FISH 641 Ec
2 Credits O
This course v
legal framew EBFM. Empl
or FISH 640

11. COURSE C
classificati

Will th for the

IF YES,

0 = 0

11.A Is course c
added in the pr

12. COURSE R
Is this cour

Justificati example,

How mar

If the cou
earned fo

If the cou
may be e

13. GRADING
Major Co
LETTER

RESTRICTION

14. PREREQU

15. SPECIAL A CONDITIONS

16. PROPOSE

17. PREVIOUS
Has the cou
Yes/No

If yes, give s

18. ESTIM.
WHA

Cour spring

19. LIBRA

*Have you library/explain
No*

20. IMPAC

What p Include in

No oth

21. POSITI

Please sp

This co Ecosys
others, fisherie
640 Ma
Manag

JUSTIFIC

The purp applicatio address th proposed

Ecosyste
approaci schools, dissertat governan from arc Certifica

AP

rc

rc

rc

c rc

A²

rc

B

AL

rc

rc

rc

A h T th
(
S D se 1
(
2
3
4
[
[
[
5 6
7
[
cl 8
[
th ca
9
[
p I
[
ta a p h
I
[
I
of th re

Course number:

Credits: 2.0 Credit

Prerequisites: F
instructor.

Location and n Thursdays during years. Owing to s in Fall 2015. The year thereafter.
videoconference

Instructor: Dr. C

Office location/f

Course readings

Fogarty, M.J., and Management

Other required :
(classes.uaf.edu/)

Course descrip
Fisheries Manag approaches, scie
is placed on Alas 487 or FISH 640
odd numbered ye

Course goals: T principles and pr
and their future c

Student learning
in detail the diff
(2) describe EBF
objectives, and n management suc
ecosystem.

Instructional me discussions on b guest speakers.

short lecture by the speaker with background to class and readings. Required readings. Required journal articles and co-lead class will be led by the speaker. The mix of the students' seniority of the course may vary. Required readings.

Course calendar to be in Fall 2015. The course will be held in 2017). Classes begin in the fall. The class meets once per week. The first class is on November 5.

The course will cover the following topics (McCarthy 2014):

- Week 1: C
- Week 2: L
- Week 3: F
- Week 4: F
- Week 5:
and other
- Week 6: ' and tropic
- Week 7: ' estuaries
- Week 8: goals, objectives, reference readings)
- Week 9: C

Course policies class, explanation of the course. Unexcused absence and active participation are required. Assignments may be subject to the course policy 09.02.01 (see: http://www.utoronto.ca/~ecol/09.02.01) cheating will not be tolerated. May also result in a grade of F.

Ev:

Th:

Ex:
ess syr cla ear der cor cas or | syr an der cou ass acc

Att: pai
cor sev inf ab:
cla kn
"C" do

Le: rea co-pai for ex
ove stu ser

the first class session. Students demonstrate full comprehension of the material and integrate the material into a broader context. Students who do not demonstrate resourcefulness in discussion, or who demonstrate incomplete understanding of the material, may be required to attend additional sessions.

Fees: N/A.

Support services: The Writing Center provides writing and fax-tutorial assistance. The University of Arkansas at Fayetteville (UAF) network (Ethernet or wireless) is available. Library catalogs, electronic journals, and other support services (e.g., tutoring, research assistance, mentoring and personal services, computer labs, and other technology services) are available through the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Disabilities services: The University of Arkansas at Fayetteville provides services for students with disabilities. For more information, contact the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, 907-425-4343.

Curric

Membe

New C Course
Course
Instruc
First T

Genera
If the C
this cou regardl
It is tim

Faculty

Clarify

-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Syllabu

-
-

•
•
•
•
•
•