

R04.06.010. Employee Education Benefits.

Employees, spouses and dependents shall incur no charges under the following conditions:

A. Dependence on the employee and their spouse shall be determined as follows:

J. Employees, spouses and dependent children must maintain a 2.0 or better cumulative GPA for the purpose of receiving graduate education benefits. Employees, spouses and dependent children must maintain a 2.0 or better cumulative GPA to be eligible for graduate level education benefits. Change applicants will be reviewed in accordance with the procedures for challenges to academic decisions set forth in university regulation.

